日時 : 2024年5月17日 (金) 16:00~17:30 本館N531-C

Dr. Ulrich F.J. Mayer is a Chemistry graduate from the Friedrich-Schiller University Jena (Germany). He holds a PhD in Chemistry from Bristol University (UK), where he also conducted postdoctoral research for the Department of Aerospace Engineering and the Ministry of Defence. He was subsequently appointed a JSPS research fellow at Kyoto University (Japan). His scientific interests span organometallic and polymer chemistry, materials science, main group compounds, and catalysis. He has published research papers and reviews in high impact journals, such as the Journal of the American Chemical Society, Angewandte Chemie Int. Ed., and Advanced Functional Materials. Dr. Mayer has written, proofread, and edited papers, reviews, grant applications, theses, and book chapters for scientists in the UK, Germany, Canada, Japan, China, Singapore, and Brazil. He currently also works as a scientific writer in the Molecular Engineering group at the Cavendish Laboratory (University of Cambridge, UK).

化研でポスドクとして過ごし、現在、論文英語の編集の仕事をされていて、お世話になっている日本人も多いかと思います。久しぶりに来日し、化研でも講演してもらいます。学生、研究員のみなさん、多数ご参加ください。
